FULBRIGHT STUDENT AWARDS

Interested in teaching English or conducting research overseas? The United States Congress created the Fulbright Program in 1946, immediately after World War II, to foster mutual understanding among nations through educational and cultural exchange. The U.S. Student Program awards approximately 1,800 grants annually and sends students to over 155 countries worldwide. These grants generally provide round-trip transportation, language or orientation courses, maintenance for the academic year (based on living costs in the host country), and supplemental health and accident insurance.

ALEXANDER VON HUMBOLDT FOUNDATION'S GERMAN CHANCELLOR FELLOWSHIP

A great opportunity for young leaders to spend a year in Germany working on a project of their choice. The financial benefits are also nothing to scoff at, either. Applications are due September 15th of each year, but this is an annual scholarship so it's never too early to start the process. Applications from the US have been low recently (around 25 each year), and as up to ten awards are given each year, an applicant's chances of success are considerable.
